About me

Hi, I'm a 20-year-old computer science student. After upper secondary school, I was interested in making software and coding in general, and because of this, I am now studying computer science for the second year. By nature, I am determined, calm and confident. I like to work in teams, and I am very motivated to try my skills on the software development side. I'm not afraid to work under pressure, and if I need to learn something I've usually learned it and completed the required task. So, I am quick learner and open to new information.
